

A PARTY'S NOT A PARTY WITHOUT A BIT OF FIZZ

If you like a party, now's the time to book your ticket for Fizz's Big Charity Gala...

AT THIS year's Evening Standard London's 1000 Awards, the cocktails and canapés come courtesy of high-profile event and catering organisers Fizz. Set up by Heather Gilbert 12 years ago, Fizz takes its clients to iconic London venues, including Tower Bridge – where both The Apprentice and London's Next Top Model have been filmed – the gardens of Westminster Abbey and this evening's location, the London Transport Museum.

With so many of London's movers and shakers present at tonight's prestigious awards, now's a great opportunity for Fizz to announce its 2012 big event.

THE CUTTY SARK REOPENS WITH THE BIG CHARITY GALA

In the year of the London Olympics, it's only fitting that The Big Charity Gala 2012 will be hosted on the Cutty Sark, a stone's throw from the Olympics site and newly reopened after a £25m refurbishment.

According to Heather, 'This is going to be a truly memorable evening in a really stunning location.'

Having raised more than £50k in previous years for Help For Heroes, Heather has now set her sights on even bigger targets. 'Companies and individuals still need to entertain, even in difficult times, and this year ten per cent of proceeds from every table booked will be donated to the companies' or individuals' charity of choice,' she says.

With full tables, corporate sponsor packages and individual tickets (£225 plus VAT) all available, the evening includes a cocktail reception and canapés, gourmet four-course dinner with accompanying wines, live music, entertainers, a full marching band and a celebrity Olympics guest speaker.
